We need 2-3 people to help put the meal together at 1:30 plus 1-2 more servers at 5:45. We are required to wear masks and follow social distancing as much as possible. Volunteer by calling or texting me, Tami Mason, at 421-2576. Thank you and Happy New Year!

Capital Campaign First Fruits Sunday - January 17
Next Sunday we will celebrate the Capital Campaign success by collecting the First Fruits of the campaign and announcing the Capital Campaign Pledge Total. We invite you to bring an initial contribution for the First Fruits campaign offering as we kickoff our three year pledge campaign. We will dedicate our offerings to the work of our church renovation and to the glory of God.

Capital Campaign Contributions. Contributions for the Capital Campaign may be done online, by check or cash, or other donation methods. It is vitally important, though, that any donation clearly indicate your intentions for the contribution. Our website offerings page has a specific place to donate to the Capital Campaign. Checks should indicate on the memo line “Capital Campaign.” We will have special offering envelopes you can use to distinguish capital campaign contributions from general budget contributions. Thank you for your support of our church’s ministry and renovation.
