

First Presbyterian Church of Cheyenne, Wyoming is currently searching for an Interim Associate Pastor to begin serving immediately. We are a friendly congregation of 350 members ready to welcome a candidate who is anxious to share their skills and talents to bridge the gap left by our long-term Associate Pastor who has recently retired.

The successful candidate will be required to assist in preaching the gospel, administering the sacraments and leading in worship in a manner consistent with the Reformed tradition including funerals weddings and baptisms. This position would be a great opportunity for a candidate with a desire to facilitate development of media outreach and use of technology to expand the ministry of Jesus Christ in a newly remodeled building.
